Year of Birth: 2011-2013

ZONE TEAM COMPOSITION

The maximum team size shall be:

20 athletes per Zone

(# of females 8 # of males 12)

4 coaches or chaperones per Zone*

(# of females 2 # of males 2) *each zone
must minimally have 1 certified coach

FILL POLICY

A sport fill policy will be in effect whereby:

1. The first opportunity to fill in is provided to the Host Community.
2. The second opportunity is provided to the Host Zone.

If neither Host Community nor the Host Zone is able to provide the fills, the other Zones will be given the opportunity.

3. The first “fill” spot will be given to the Zone with the greatest number of participants in the Zone playoffs.
4. Each subsequent “fill” spot will follow as per the next highest number of participants in the Zone playoff.
5. If after the first round of fills there are still available spots, the Zone with the greatest number of participants in the playoff will start the process again filling a second “fill” spot from that Zone, and so on until all spots have been filled.

Fill athletes will receive Zone ID for the Zone to which they are assigned. Fill athlete results count toward team points for Zone they are filling for as well as their individual points.

Fill athletes will stay in the Village accommodations with the Zone to which they are assigned.

Fills must be submitted for approval to the Multisport Games Unit by January 13, 2026.

ELIGIBILITY

Athletes

- All athletes of the correct age and weight may participate.
- Athletes who have won a National Championship are ineligible.
- Athletes may compete in their Zone of residence or a Zone where they are a club member, however, they must declare Zone of choice prior to playoffs.
- If an athlete fails to make weight, they may still be entered into the tournament if it is safe to do so, participating strictly in exhibition matches. They will not collect team points and will not be eligible for a team or individual medal.

For Alberta Games Eligibility Policy information please visit www.albertawintergames.ca.
